Re: United States v. Kelvin Marte, 18 Cr. 789 (LGS)

LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Dear Judge Schofield:

The parties submit this joint letter in response to the Court's docket note, dated January 9, 2023, requesting an update on the above referenced violations of supervised release conditions as well as the defendant's compliance. (Dkt. 26).

With regard to the defendant's compliance, the Probation Department ("Probation") has informed the Government that Probation expects to file an amended memorandum (the "Amended Memo") that will include new allegations about additional violations of supervised release which reflect the defendant's continued non-compliance. Probation has informed that Government that it expects that the Amended Memo will include allegations that the defendant has (i) traveled outside the jurisdiction without permission; (ii) tested positive for fentanyl on at least two occasions; and (iii) failed to report to Probation for a drug test on at least one occasion.

Because the parties have not yet received the Amended Memo, the parties are unable to set forth a current position as to a potential disposition in this case. However, at this stage, the parties do not believe that an evidentiary hearing will be necessary and expect to have a substantive update for the Court in the next 30-to-45 days.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
